CATERING A CULINARY FETE FOR 10,000
SAVOR...Chicago Serves up Edible Delights en Masse at the Chicago Auto Show’s First Look For Charity

[CHICAGO, February 4, 2014] – Preparing for one of its largest and favorite events of the year, the SAVOR...Chicago team is going for gold with its menu for the Chicago Auto Show’s First Look for Charity, which gives 10,000 guests a sneak peek at the latest auto introductions. A leader in embracing environmentally friendly foodservice practices and initiatives at McCormick Place, SAVOR...Chicago brings its high profile chef and culinary expertise to the charity gala’s menu and edibles.

On the evening of February 7th, 10,000 guests will converge at McCormick Place for a first look before the Chicago Auto Show opens to the public the next day. As guests walk amid the sleek, new automobiles, they will taste culinary delights from SAVOR...Chicago and selected local restaurants. The First Look for Charity event is one of the city’s largest and most high-profile charity events. This year, SAVOR...Chicago and the Chicago Auto Show have incorporated an Olympic theme to the party and the catering stations. As SAVOR...Chicago and the Chicago Auto Show go for the gold, here are some of the preparations the evening will require:

- 80,000 individual servings will be prepared
- Beverages: 18,000 beers, 14,000 wine glasses and 5,000 mixed drinks
- 260 servers/bartenders
- 15 charity events before the First Look with full beverage and menu service
- 6,500 hours to plan, stage and execute the event

The Chicago Auto Show’s benevolent event is in its 23rd year regularly generating $2 million dollars for 18 local area charities.

First Look for Charity
7 to 11 p.m., Feb. 7
McCormick Place, 2301 S. Lake Shore Drive, Chicago.
